Grant agreements or award letters, detailing the Foundation's expectation that funds will be used only for approved purposes, accompany all foundation grants. Most grantees must also demonstrate how grant funds are used through a standard reporting form. Foundation staff use grant reporting forms to track the timeliness and effectiveness/success of grants awarded. This information is then shared with various grant review committees and Trustees of the Board in order to monitor the outcomes of grants awarded and also to improve the grantmaking process.
